Chairman's Message

I am pleased to introduce you to the world of Jeewan mala hospital. Our endeavor has always been to keep our patients well informed about not only the latest best practices in the healthcare arena but also to regularly update them about our achievements.

Through this website we aim to reach out to our patients across the globe so that they can take an informed decision next time they want any medical opinion. As always, we at Jeewan Mala look forward to your comments and suggestions and are even more motivated to carry on this task.
